IN THE CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE AT BANGALORE.

CRIMINAL SIDE.

Addendum dated 5th January 1928 to Rule of Practice No. 86, dated the 12th April 1913.

The Chief Court directs that the following paragraph be added as paragraph 21A of the Rule of Practice :—

Return of Exhibits.

21A.—When an entry in a public register, or in a private account book or other bulky record, not being itself an entry in respect of which an offence has been committed, or is alleged to have been committed, is produced in evidence, and made an exhibit in the case, and the retention of such register, account book or record would cause inconvenience to the Public, or the person producing the same, such register, book or record shall not be retained by the Court but shall be returned to the person by whom it has been produced. Before returning the register, book or record the Court shall mark, for the purpose of identification such entry or entries as have been exhibited in evidence, and shall cause a certified copy of the entry or entries, made at the cost of the party at whose instance it was or they were exhibited, to be filed with the record of the case. The person to whom the register, book or record it returned, shall be bound to produce the same before the Court when required to do so, and may be required to enter into a bond to that effect.
